

August 2015 FR SP Forward to a friend

HIGHLIGHT OF THE MONTH

QUICK LINKS

Upcoming webinar: How can index insurance be bundled with other financial and non-financial services

On Thursday August 27, the WBG's Global Index Insurance Facility, the USAID and BASIS/I4-sponsored Global Action Network (GAN) and the ILO's Impact Insurance Facility are organizing a webinar to look into the question "How can index insurance be bundled with other financial and non-financial services". Registration is now open and can be done on this page.

Magazine launch

KNOWLEDGE UPDATE

M-health: Remote access

Lisa Morgan and John Rogers

The Actuary's latest feature asks how mobile technology improves access to health insurance and healthcare, focusing on the underserved.

Loyalty-based mobile insurance: Is design aligned to business objectives?

Premasis Mukherjee, MicroSave

Mobile insurance has reached an impressive scale over the last few years and now has more than 10 million clients. MicroSave's latest briefing note discusses the shifting strategic objectives of telecom operators and how mobile insurance can be customised to suit to their needs.

Microfinance and climate change: Bridging academic research with field practice

ADA Microinsurance's first issue of "Passerelles" is dedicated to microfinance and climate change. It analyses the opportunities and challenges for sustainable development at the macrolevel, meso-level, and micro-level, and presents the key actors, initiatives, and ideas connected to the topic. The online edition of Passerelles can be viewed here.

Microinsurance Network has launched the magazine "The State of Microinsurance"

Podcast

Women's World Banking's client education in Morocco

NEWS FLASH

Learning session on microinsurance held in Peru

Over 100 representatives of insurers, distribution channels, governments and donors met in Lima to share experiences and discuss innovations with the potential to advance inclusive insurance in Peru.

First agricultural insurance tested in Cambodia

Un Raksmeay and Igor Kossov, Khmer Times

Cambodia's first pilot programme to insure farmers against rice crop loss was launched this month in five provinces. The insurance aims to address droughts and floods caused by climate change.

NAICOM approves licences for 16 microinsurance institutions

O. Babatunde, BizWatchNigeria

The Nigerian National Insurance Commission has issued licences to 16 firms to commence microinsurance operations in the country.

Video

Job offer at GIZ: Advisor for access to insurance initiative

GIZ (Deutsche Gesellschaft für Internationale Zusammenarbeit) is looking for an Advisor for its Access to Insurance Initiative. Have a look at the vacancy to learn more about this position.

---

The Nigerian Insurers Association partners with ILO and GIZ for microinsurance development

---

More information

- Articles
- Publications
- Videos

---

Join us on

---

Unsubscribe from the list | Update subscription preferences

Housed at the International Labour Organization, the Impact Insurance Facility enables the insurance industry, governments, and their partners to realise the potential of insurance for social and economic development. The Facility was launched in 2008 with generous support from the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation, and has received subsequent funding from several donors, including the Z Zurich Foundation, Munich Re Foundation, the World Bank Group, USAID and AusAID.

Copyright © 2015 ILO's Impact Insurance Facility, All rights reserved.