

HIGHLIGHT OF THE MONTH

QUICK LINKS

The Impact Insurance Forum 2017

The summary report of the Impact Insurance Forum 2017 is now available for download! This year's Forum focused on "Insurance for resilient value chains" and was attended by more than 85 participants from insurance and reinsurance companies, donors, and government agencies.

Geneva Papers

KNOWLEDGE UPDATE

Climate insurance database Global Index Insurance Facility

You can now explore the climate Insurance database, a joint initiative of the GIIF, MCII and GIZ, commissioned by the German Ministry for the Environment, Nature Conservation, Building and Nuclear Safety. The database is designed to share experiences in the field of risk transfer and insurance solutions for climate risk management. The Facility is proud to have contributed to a number of factsheets and reports which are featured in this database.

New blogs on Medium

The Facility

If you aren't yet following the Facility's blog on Medium, do so now to never miss an update! Among the latest posts is a blog in our series on managing change within insurance providers, this time focussing on the experience of AXA Mansard in Nigeria.

A2ii's Annual Report: Empowering regulators – developing communities A2ii

The Access to Insurance Initiative \(A2ii\) has released its Annual Report, showcasing its activities in supporting supervisors to make their markets more inclusive. The report also examines key trends in inclusive insurance markets and their implications for developing and emerging country insurance supervisors.

NEWS FLASH

Follow the Facility showcase page on LinkedIn!

The Facility now has a new page on LinkedIn – start following us over here for our latest updates! If you are not a member already, we would also like to invite you to join the Impact Insurance discussion group, where you can exchange information and knowledge with other experts interested in impact insurance.

Microinsurance Master programme

There is still time to sign up for the Microinsurance Master programme! This unique and comprehensive 10-week programme, developed in partnership with Pioneer, CARD Pioneer and the Micro Insurance Centre, is designed specifically for microinsurance leaders and focuses on client-centric solutions that reduce the vulnerability of low-income people.

Key takeaways from the 13th IMC

The Microinsurance Network has released a brief summary with some of the

Call for papers

CFI blog

Insuring "emerging women" – old issues, new solutions

11th Consultative Forum

Recording now available

More information

key takeaways from the 13th International Microinsurance Conference, held earlier this month in Lima, Peru.

- Articles
- Publications
- Videos

Join us on

Interested in other publications? Click here to update your subscription preferences.

Housed at the International Labour Organization, the Impact Insurance Facility enables the insurance industry, governments, and their partners to realise the potential of insurance for social and economic development. The Facility was launched in 2008 with generous support from the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation, and has received subsequent funding from several donors.

Copyright © 2017 ILO's Impact Insurance Facility, All rights reserved.

Unsubscribe from the list