

HIGHLIGHT OF THE MONTH

QUICK LINKS

Governments as catalysts for scaling up agriculture insurance: Key lessons from the Peer Learning Platform workshop

To explore how governments can support efforts to scale up agriculture insurance, the ILO organised the Peer Learning Platform for Policymakers in Kenya. The meeting was attended by participants from several African and Asian countries. Our latest blog offers five key takeaways.

Ethiopian pastoralists

KNOWLEDGE UPDATE

Regulatory Impact Assessments: Microinsurance regulations in Peru and the Philippines

A2ii and the ILO

Insurance supervisors in emerging markets have developed different approaches to foster markets for inclusive insurance. Several markets have undergone transformative changes as a result, but what has been the impact of these measures? Read the “Regulatory Impact Assessment” focussing on regulations in Peru and the Philippines.

10th Consultative Forum Briefing Note: Scaling up agricultural index insurance in Africa - Building disaster resilience of smallholder farmers

Microinsurance Network

The latest Briefing Note from the Microinsurance Network provides a summary of the Consultative Forum in Kampala, Uganda and outlines recommendations for action for the industry and regulators. Click here to read more!

Largest-ever microinsurance pay-out made

Concrete results

NEWS FLASH

Blogs on Medium

Start following the Facility's blog on Medium to not miss the latest contribution! Recent posts include exciting news from Côte d'Ivoire and insurance solutions for the vulnerable populations in Central America.

Microinsurance Master leadership programme

The Facility is proud to announce the “Microinsurance Master”, which was developed in partnership with Pioneer, CARD Pioneer and the Micro Insurance Centre. This unique and comprehensive 10-week programme is designed specifically for microinsurance leaders and focuses on client-centric solutions that reduce the vulnerability of low-income people.

ADA and Grameen move towards a common project

Professional MI course offerings in Zimbabwe

Annual member meeting report 2017 is out now

More information

- Articles
- Publications
- Videos

Join us on

Interested in other publications? Click here to update your subscription preferences.

Housed at the International Labour Organization, the Impact Insurance Facility enables the insurance industry, governments, and their partners to realise the potential of insurance for social and economic development. The Facility was launched in 2008 with generous support from the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation, and has received subsequent funding from several donors.

Copyright © 2017 ILO's Impact Insurance Facility, All rights reserved.

Unsubscribe from the list