

Transaction processing

Transaction processing forms the middle technology layer between client interface and data processing. It includes systems to manage transactions for operations such as enrolment, claims, and policy administration. The transaction processing layer interfaces with different systems of partners. Standard codes and processes need to be defined so that information generated by different systems can be seamlessly integrated.

Show 246 items per resource

Projects

Emerging Insights

Publications

Other resources

Relevant Links

Source URL: <http://www.impactinsurance.org/topic/technology/subtopic/transaction-processing>