Paper #:40

Title:Making public?private partnerships work in insurance

Author(s):

Miguel Solana, ILO's Impact Insurance Facility

Date of Publication:March 2015

Summary:

Being able to design and implement insurance public-private partnerships (PPPs) in insurance requires a long-term vision and a good understanding between partners. This paper presents ten recommendations, based on the experiences of four cases from Colombia, India, Mexico, and Peru, which aim to help both governments and the insurance industry to establish successful PPPs.
