Shared cutting-edge solutions with over 25,000 stakeholders

Since 2008 we have reached over 244,000 stakeholders around the world with cutting edge solutions. This included 25,000 stakeholders reached in the first half of 2016 alone. Out of those, around 300 were reached through direct interactions, which includes peer learning activities, trainings, events and webinars. The remainder consisted of those reached through indirect interactions, including website visitors, subscribers, and social media.
